Advanced Institute for Ecumenical Leadership

JULY 25-31:

Collegeville Institute for Ecumenical and Cultural Research, St. John's University and Abbey, Collegeville, Minnesota

Since 1981, the Catholic Association of Diocesan Ecumenical and Interreligious Officers (formerly NADEO) and the Bishops' Committee for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs have sponsored leadership training opportunities beginning with the Introductory Institute for Ecumenical Leadership. Aware of the rapidly changing dimensions of ecumenical work, many wish to have further training to include the latest and most significant changes affecting the work of the officers and commission members.

In response to this need, CADEIO and the BCEIA are once again offering an Advanced Institute for Ecumenical Leadership to be presented from early evening Sunday, July 25, 2010 through mid-morning Saturday, July 31. It will be held at the Collegeville Institute for Ecumenical and Cultural Research at Saint John's Abbey and University, Collegeville, Minnesota. The faculty will include Brother Jeffrey Gros, FSC, Rev. Dr. Cecil Robeck, Dr. Michael Root, as well as several monks from Saint John's. The presenters will offer a deeper study of the dialogues and their progress, a closer look at the Eastern Churches, share concerns regarding churches not active in the ecumenical movement, and address other current ecumenical issues.

This opportunity is open to those who have attended the introductory institute or its equivalent. The cost for the six-day program is $850 per person.

CADEIO Newsletter

CADEIO has, in the past, published an on-line quarterly newsletter that was sent electronically to all its Members and Associate Members to help them follow the work of the Association across the country.

Although we forward news and events information to membership by email as we receive it, we are also reestablishing an e-newsletter, and published our first new issue early last fall.

In the meantime, if you have not been receiving emails regularly, that means we may be having difficulty with your listing on the email roster or connectivity. Please contact Fr. Don Rooney by phone to see what can be done: 540-373-6663.
